Pre-Convention Huaka'i

Kaho'olawe, KIRK Base camp — Michael Nāho 'opi'i

Friday, November 8 - 11, 2019

Kaho'olawe Island Reserve Commission - As modern times rolled in, Kaho'olawe underwent a harsh evolution. It would be used briefly as a penal colony, for sheep and cattle ranching, and eventually transferred to the U.S. Navy for use as a bombing range. Litigation forced an end to the bombing in 1990 and the island was placed under the administration of the Kaho'olawe Island Reserve Commission (KIRC). Following a 10-year period of ordnance removal, control of access to Kaho'olawe was transferred to the State of Hawai'i in 2003. Today, the KIRC is responsible for the restoration and sustainable management of the island until it can be transferred to a Native Hawaiian entity to manage.

Kalaupapa, Moloka'i — Ka'ohulani McGuire

November 8-10, 2019

When Hansen's disease (leprosy) was introduced to the Hawaiian Islands, King Kamehameha V banished all afflicted to the isolated Kalaupapa peninsula on the north shore of Moloka'i. This huaka'i is opened to 18 adult members above the age of 18. Once your spot is confirmed, you will be given instructions on how to secure your travel arrangements.

Since 1866, more than 8000 people, mostly Hawaiians, have died at Kalaupapa. Once a prison, Kalaupapa is now refuge for the few remaining residents who are now cured, but were forced to live their lives in isolation. Managed by the U.S. National Park Service. <https://www.nps.gov/kala/planyourvisit/index.htm>
