of the Hawaiian Civic Clubs
State of Hawaii
Wailuku, Maui, Hawaii

Aloha!

WELCOME to all of you. It is a privilege indeed to meet with all of you again.

Your hosts, the officers and members of the Central Maui Hawaiian Civic Club, have worked hard and long in the past few months preparing for this important occasion. Everything was done to make your stay here comfortable and pleasant. I know that you all join me in saying "Mahalo Nui" to them.

We need not remind one another that we are gathered here to do a real job. We are to deliberate intelligently and purposefully on all matters which we consider important and pertinent to our own welfare and that of the people we represent and enjoy our own heritage NOW and in the FUTURE.

At this moment I cannot help but feel that just as KAMEHAMEHA I envisioned the unification of the peoples of our islands and with courageous leadership did so more than a century ago, SO, too, MUST we lift our hearts and our sights and envision the goal we wish to reach and strive unfailingly towards it.

I know that you are ready to go forward, so, let us go hand in hand!

Faithfully yours,
