MISSION To effectively advocate for the educational, civic, health, cultural, economic and social well-being of our lāhui.

VISION A thriving lāhui - He lāhui ola mau

Objective 1: Create opportunities for learning key issues and processes, to promote information exchange, and to motivate member engagement.

Objective 2: Support leaders ready and willing in pursuing elected, appointed, and administrative government positions.

Objective 3: Promote connections, networking, and mentoring among established leaders and rising leaders.

Our advocacy must be consistent and credible to effectively carry the voices, perspectives, and visions of our community into civic processes and forums to shape decision-making and outcomes that serve the best interests of the lāhui.

Objective 1: Preserve, revitalize, and promote normalization of ʻōlelo Hawai‘i in our homeland and drive and inspire language growth to ensure a living language in Hawai‘i and beyond.

Objective 2: Provide resources necessary to build capacity across the AHCC so our presence is established in a broad range of processes in all levels of government.

Objective 3: Serve as a primary resource for those seeking a Native Hawaiian insights into key issues.

Well-being of ʻāina is essential to the well-being of our people. We must diligently care for our land and resources to sustain our people today and build a resilient lāhui in the future. Our advocacy will be shaped by this mana‘o.

Objective 1: Strengthen strategic partnerships with organizations, and especially Ali‘i Trusts, that focus on care for our land and people, and coordinate collective advocacy efforts.

Objective 2: Strategize on how to best advocate for preservation, protection, and stewardship of land, watersheds, ocean resources, significant cultural sites, traditional practices, and cultural intellectual property, while balancing our use of resources for housing, employment, economic opportunity, health and wellness, and education.

Objective 3: Serve as a primary resource for those seeking a Native Hawaiian insights into key issues.

Objective 3: Engage with lāhui-serving programs and initiatives to ensure equitable access to and culturally-appropriate delivery of services.

Objective 1: Re-build reliable channels for internal and external communication.

Objective 2: Develop events and activities that attract and retain new members, and build up clubs and councils.

Objective 3: Establish a sustainable and long-term source of revenue to support the AHCC operations and annual convention.

Objective 4: Adopt a succession strategy for the AHCC, councils, and clubs that include best practices for seamless leadership transitions.

A century ago, Prince Kūhiō launched this movement with a vision of what the lāhui needed at that moment, and in the coming decades. Now, our organization must be forward-thinking in fortifying our internal structure to sustain this movement for the next hundred years.
